Motion was made by Mr. Burrell, which carried 4:0, to adopt the following resolution:

RESOLUTION OF RECOGNITION

WHEREAS, Jill Cruz moved to New Kent County as a new bride in 1993; and

WHEREAS, Jill joined Bottom of the Bridge LaSertoma (“Leaders in Service to Mankind”) in 1994 and convinced other members of the then-struggling organization of its importance to the community, and helped to reinvigorate the club and keep it from disbanding; and

WHEREAS, Jill served as Bottom of the Bridge LaSertoma’s Secretary for eight years and later became a Qualified Trainer for club presidents and was instrumental in her club’s receiving numerous awards; and

WHEREAS, Jill was a charter member of Shore to Shore LaSertoma, which formed in 2001; and

WHEREAS, Jill has served as President of the Bottom of the Bridge LaSertoma and has moved up the ladder in the international organization, having served as Governor, Second Vice-President, President -Elect , and has now been installed as President of LaSertoma International; and

WHEREAS, Jill's commitment to service and community extends to other areas, including growing and cutting her hair for "Locks of Love"; serving as co-chairman of the Christmas Mother program; serving as a Big Sister; actively promoting animal adoption through the New Kent Animal Shelter; and, along with her husband, sponsoring the cleanup of two miles of roadway under the "Adopt a Highway" program.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the New Kent County Board of Supervisors recognizes the service, contributions and dedication of Jill Cruz and expresses its sincere appreciation for her community service and wishes her well in her new capacity as President of LaSertoma International.
